No. 319.-No. 18,491.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 14, 1911.

THE MASTER OF AFFAIRS AT JUAREZ

Revolt Against Him Short- Miss Helen Griffith of Roland Park Mabel Alberta Granger to Face False Lived and He Will Retain His Cabinet Advisers.

REBELS OCCUPY CANANEA AMID GREAT REJOICING

Mexican Capital Waits Apprehensively for Outbreak.

of Peace Negotiations Will

Be Made at an Early Date.

complete master of the situation.

After a day of thrilling incidents, roadbed. during which the lives of Madero and his the resignation of the provisional cabernment is quiet.

mander, whose life was threatened early today by angry mobs of insurrectos, was spirited away by Francisco I. Madero. Jr., in person to the American side of the sconsed in the home of friends in El Deep-Laid Plot Suspected.

A plot quiet, deeply laid, is suspected by the rebel leaders as the cause of the near riot in front of the Madero headquarters today, and some of the Maderos assert that it was a sinister scheme on the part of those who are trying to break up the organization of the revoluion to foster the opinion throughout Mexico that the movement is one of an-

Provisional President Madero, in statement issued tonight, charged that Gen. Orozco's actions were incited "by to find themselves held back by of Orosco's men. A throng of solhad gathered outside the building. and Senor Madero determined to appeal to Madero Dares Crowd to Shoot, ax shooters had been drawn and rifles were leveled, but Senor Madero stood before the crowd and slapping his breast "Shoot me; shoot me if you

Gen. Orozco was at his side. His mer stensibly had been summoned to take part in the coup d'etat, but as Madero reassuring way, the affection which been ripened among his men since revolution began crystallized in a to the clash today, but, at bottom, it was Col. Villa was said to have inalso was said to have been displeased with the naming of a civilian as minister of war. Tonight all is hariony. Senor Madero has impressed upon Orozco that the choosing of a caband the management of a government is quite outside the function of the

Gen. Navarro Saved.

Apprehension for the safety of Gen. pal building, and he determined at the commander. He was whisked away an automobile to where Gen. Navarro been staying since he was captured, after a brief explanation conveyed Gen. Navarro to the river front, where he latter waded the river and soon was afe on the American territory. Ameran troops were ready to protect him. necessary, but the insurrectos were ig-return to Mexican soil then required to do so by Madero. If the feeling against Navarro among the of Baltimore. asurrectos, because of alleged acts of cruelty in previous battles, becomes tronger, it may be that a court-martial the disposition of Senor Madero and his supporters is to save Navarro back of her head and on one hip.

Madero's Explanation.

Senor Madero tonight gave out the following explanation of the day's events: "Orozco, excited by the victory, probably from the adulation and bad advice of persons interested in causing disunion among us, committed a fault which fortunately had no consequences.

lay the fault upon the persons designated by me to provision the army; but the truth is that in the storehouses we later. have more than enough provisions, so that the fault is with the provider of his' "He told me also that he did not like

"There being present a considerable number of soldiers at the place where we met, it appeared to me opportune to address them and explain to them what was transpiring. They all showed that they were well disposed to concord, and in order to terminate the small and dis-agreeable incident before them Orozco and I clasped hands and forgot every-Deposed President of Venezuela May thing, as I took into account that although it was true that he had just committed a fault, on the other hand he had given good service to the cause.

Has Forces Well in Hand,

"This incident, in itself disagreeable, has furnished me with more data to asin any case whatever, and that the of- said, he intends to sail for America. ficers, although they may go astray for

KILLED IN HIS AUTO TROUBLE IN BIG HAT

O. C. Williams of Baltimore Purchase of One Causes Ar-Meets Death Near Berwyn.

Narrowly Escapes Death.

RUNS-INTO DROVE OF HORSES LOVE OF FINERY DISASTROUS

Car Said to Have Been Going Forty Prisoner Accused of Securing Wear-Miles an Hour-Miss Griffith Brought Here.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

BERWYN, Md., May 13 .- Oliver C. Williams, 1317 St. Paul street, Baltimore, Md., was instantly killed and Miss Helen peeping delicately from beneath her CABRAL TO ATTACK NOGALES Md., was seriously injured at 8:30 o'clock silk stockings; went into an F street this evening on the Washington-Baltimore store yesterday and ordered a hat Prediction That Formal Resumption boulevard when a big touring car in which took a hat box almost as big as which they were riding collided with one herself. Before she could leave the of a drove of horses and upset.

car, which, acording to statements of from headquarters, James Springman witnesses, was running at a rate of at by name, bowed politely and arrested least forty miles an hour, and he at- her. She is charged with obtaining tempted to pass on the wrong side of goods under false pretenses. JUAREZ, Mexico, May 13.-The su- the road without slacking his speed. preme test, the clash between the mili- One of the front wheels struck a horse into police headquarters at the District tary and political authorities, was ex- and threw the machine to one side. The building with Miss Granger and the perienced by the 'provisional government car skidded into the ditch and out again hat box four other detectives emitted of Mexico today, and Provisional Presi- and one of the rear wheels collapsed. In sighs of relief, for they were assigned dent Francisco I. Madero, jr., tonight is an instant the big machine was over- to the case, and are of the opinion that turned and its occupants thrown to the in the arrest of Miss Granger the de-

Mr. Williams was pinned under the chiefs were in danger, Gen. Orozco, in a car, his skull, jaw and one shoulder bemoment of passion, ordering the arrest ing fractured, so that death must have of the little rebel leader and demanding been instantaneous. Although Miss Grifinet, the capital of the provisional gov- way, attempting to aid her companion when bystanders reached the scene.

In Washington Hospital.

Drs. A. O. Eddy, Allen Griffith, Guy W. Latimer and E. O. Ettine were summoned Grande and tonight is safely en- by telephone. They found Mr. Williams Griffith probably was injured internally, returning from Baltimore with william H. Marr. They carried her to Casualty of Mr. Williams.

> Justice of the Peace Richard Beall, automobile accident, which was the re-

The members of the jury were A. J. W. Sanford, Jean Belford. Harry Thompson, George May, Henry Dovenan, Harvey Taylor, Edward Shea, George Hardy. George Gowdy and D. W. Kermann.

Car En Route to Baltimore.

bystanders afterward said must have had been in Washington at dinner. About one-half mile beyond Berwyn. where the road descends at a sharp down grade, Williams approached from the rear a drove of five horses, which were en route to the Baltimore horse market. the horses and leading the rest, and was about in the center of the roadway. As the searchlights on Williams' car were lighted he had opportunity to realize the than a week ago and ran up a bill of ossible danger when he was yet 100 ards from the horses.

He failed to slacken speed, however, and sought to pass the horses on the of slippers, a vanity set, a pair of braceight. Obeying the "rule of the road." Christman guided his animals in the same direction, and the inevitable col-

Body Taken to Berwyn.

Washington, the machine was lifted and from the ditch and the body of Mr. Williams was taken to the undertakmobile, a thirty-horsepower, five-passenger Cadillac, was totally wrecked. Residents of Hyattsville, after hearing of the accident, declared that the same machine passed through that town at a high rate of speed shortly before the fatality, and left a dead dog in its wake. Mr. Williams was secretary and treas-urer of the Madison Motor Car Company

Miss Griffith was not considered fatally injured by physicians at Casualty Hosshe suffered somewhat from nausea, which might indicate internal injuries.

TWO KILLED, ONE WOUNDED.

Negro Under Arrest Starts Firing at Deputy Sheriff.

SWAINSBORO, Ga., May 13 .-- One negro was shot to death, Deputy Sheriff "He complained that the troops did not R. B. Woods was fatally wounded and attorney, instituted the government suits have sufficient provisions, and wanted to John McLeod, a negro, was wounded three times here tonight. Woods died

The negro drew a revolver and shot the persons whom I had designated as cabinet officers; but I told him that it was not he who should tell me whom I should appoint.

There being present a considerable found dead on the sidewalk with a pistol Robert W. Tayler. were fired. Dave Blount, a negro, was found dead on the sidewalk with a pistol beside him. Crul captured McLeod after a chase and took him to jail.

CASTRO ON THE WING.

ezuela, arrived here from Teneriffe May 9 and re-embarked immediately on the steamer Reina Victoria under an assumed steamer Reina Victoria under an assumed state to assume that I can count on my soldiers name for Cadiz, from which port, it is name for Cadiz, from which port is name for Cadiz, from which port, it is name for Cadiz, from which port for Galled Home.

Senator Owen left for Guther, Okla...

The cavalry division would can be for for finished on his paics a short time ago with a fifth foot from the state, for for finished on his paics a short time ago with a fifth foot from the state, for for finished on his paics and took him to the Casualty down in the fifth hospitals.

Senator Owen left for Guther sure me that I can count on my soldiers name for Cadiz, from which port, it is a moment, never attempt to disobey my his presence was practically unnoticed.

rest of Young Girl.

COMPANION IS INJURED NABBED IN F STREET STORE

Pretense Charge.

ing Apparel Valued at $150 in Another's Name.

Miss Mabel Alberta Granger, seventeen years old, dressed in a charming suit of white, and with white shoes Griffith, 5 Elmhurst avenue, Roland Park, skirts, just enough to give a hint of store to join the afternoon F street Mr. Williams was at the wheel of the promenade, however, a large detective

> When Detective Springman walked partment has solved one of its hard given out by the police last night is correct, Miss Granger had outfitted herself with about a hundred and fifty dollars' worth of finery from various stores, about all of which has been found, according to the detectives who made a hurried call to the girl's boarding place on 8th street northeast.

up over her arrest. She was taken to the house of detention and some of the detectives talked to her about a list of things which the stores have complain-Granger had admitted her wrongdoings and said "she was in trouble and would have to make the best of it."

Goods Charged to Another Woman. The detectives say that Miss Granger Hospital. She was not told of the death lived with her grandmother at 1101 3d suit of criminal negligence on his own about it and entered a most strenuous part in that he violated the speed limit protest. She is said to have notified the and extempted to pass on the wrong stores that she had not sent such a girl for any goods. Thereupon the five detectives got busy. Somehow they ob-Sanford, foreman; George Bewlie, Charles tained pictures of Miss Granger and spent many hours visiting stores showing the photographs and telling the story as far as they knew it, up to the > been fairly well educated in the matter. When Miss Granger called at an F street the hat had been put in one of the bigcarefully, asked Miss Granger many questions about the signature, the order tective was speeding F street-wards. It was then that Miss Granger was arrested, and she will probably answer to the charge in the Police Court tomorrow

Ran Up Big Bill, Police Say. The police say that Miss Granger called lets, a handbag and some stockings. She wanted two ostrich plumes and some get them. Then she put on some of

of corsets and a pair of gloves were sold o'clock. tion last night she was very penitent. especially bitter toward a certain firm of Sher whom she called by name, blaming fish dealers. her for her present trouble. Granger intimated that the girl she namwoman thus involved made a very em-

The police say that Miss Granger was left an orphan when she was very young. and that part of her life has been spent in an orphan asylum. Her grandmother took the orphan to live with her in the section, but Miss Granger has preferred to live elsewhere some of the her grandmother's house, she rented a com on 8th street northeast, near Masachusetts avenue, and is said to have made his home in Washington. told the people at that place that she was from the north, intending to stay but a few days in the city. While she They called there and reported that they found most of the property they described as coming from the stores.

TAKES PLACE ON BENCH

William L. Day Subscribes to Oath as Federal Judge.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 13.-William L. Day, who, as United States district against the alleged towing and electrical trusts and rebate cases against the Pennsylvania, Nickle Plate and other rail-McLeod was a prisoner in charge of City Marshal Crul. On the way to jail they met the deputy.

Sylvania, Nickle Flate and City roads, today took the oath of office as federal judge of the Cleveland district. At the same time U. G. Denman of Toledo, former attorney general of Ohio, they met the deputy.

African Republic's New President. PARIS, May 18 .- The governor general of French East Africa advises the government that D. M. Howard, formerly secretary of the treasury of Liberia. Come to United States.

LAS PALMAS, Canary Islands, May 13.

—Cipriano Castro, ex-President of Ven
Vear.

Fifth Foot for a Colt.

A POLAR DISCOVERY THAT MAY YET BE MADE.

TO CHAS. W. SHEAFFER

Stricken With Paralysis While Driving His Automobile Through the Mall.

While driving his automobile through the Mall last night at 7 o'clock Charles W. Sheaffer of 624 9th street southwest was stricken with paralysis and died two and a half hours later. Mr. Sheaffer was riding with his brotherin-law, Mr. Yateman of Baltimore. He was in particularly good spirits and appeared to be in the best of health. The vehicle had just left the grounds of the Department of Agriculture and was entering the Monument grounds when Mr. Sheaffer suddenly lurched forward over the steering wheel.

Mr. Yateman Acts Promptly.

Mr. Yateman immediately turned off found it impossible to arouse Mr. Sheaffer, and, starting the machine, drove son's assailant. rapidly to Mr. Sheaffer's home. get them. Then she put on some of stricken Mr. Sheaner was examined by to the hospital. "It was very sudden these clothes, the police say, and went Dr. R. T. Holden, but medical aid was and unexpected. I know the man's to a store in 7th street. A suit, a pair of no avail and he died about 9:30 face, but not his name. He's been

Mr. Sheaffer, who was one of the best known citizens of the southwest section of the city, was a member of the firm of Sheaffer & Stuart, wholesale

No Previous Illness.

His partner, George W. Stuart, said last night that Mr. Sheaffer had been than 5 feet 9 inches tall. He was fifty-but for the last thirty-five years has widow and nine children survive him.

BURNED TO DEATH IN FIRE Man of Seventy Loses Life Fighting

Special Dispatch to The Star. CUMBERLAND, Md., May 13 .- In a fire, which yesterday destroyed about eighty acres of valuable timber property belonging to Mifflin C. Gregory, W. ceeded in drawing my revolver with the C. Bennett, John Went and Newton Lanham, Mr. Gregory was burned to death. He was seventy years of age. The noise of the shooting attracted Mrs. over the grave of William Paca, Gov-He was seventy years of age. Mr. Gregory was burning brush and the fire got away from him. Neighbors went to the rescue and succeeded in stopping the fire after many hours' work. During the excitement no one thought anything about Mr. Gregory. After the fire was out he was missed and a search revealed his charred body.

ARMY REARRANGEMENT.

Changes Proposed in Bill of Representative Knowland.

He is survived by his widow and two has introduced a bill directing a rearrangement of the army. Six infantry divisions are proposed, each to consist of nine regiments. There would be also two divisions of field artillery, one of cavalry, one battalion of engineers, one

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY SHOT THREE TIMES RACING BOAT MAKES Vicious Assault by Negro Upon

Kenilworth Grocer. TWICE WOUNDED IN BACK

Ranson Wilson in Serious Condition, His Wife in Highly Nervous State From Fright.

Ranson Wilson, a groceryman at Kenilidentified colored man in his place of business about 10:80 o'clock last night in an evident effort to rob the place. The wounded man was taken to the Casualty Hospital by Dr. Z. M. Brady, his family physician. Two wounds are in the back and one, a slight searing of the skin, in

ous. The police of the ninth precinct are searching in Kenilworth and the surrounding neighborhood for Mr. Wil-"The shooting occurred just as I was closing my store," Mr. Wilson

The former are believed to be seri-hanging around the neighborhood for Proposed a Purchase.

According to the groceryman's story cake and two pounds of sugar. Mr. taking 12 cents tendered in payment, he followed him and paused at the door for intil he received the articles purchased. The merchant walked about ten feet down the center of the store when he noticed the colored man turn and draw that the Furlong will be given a number a revolver from his coat pocket, but the of other trials before being turned over movement was made so quickly that Wil- to her purchaser. son was unable to make an outcry. A moment later three shots rang out in quick succession, two bullets, as stated, lodging in Wilson's back and the third striking a .32-caliber revolver he was carrying in his hip pocket.
At the third shot Wilson turned and same time rushing toward the negro. The latter fired again, the fourth bullet striking Wilson in the face.

"It nearly felled me," Mr. Wilson told the police. "I steadied myself by placing one hand on the counter and finally sucand Archibald of the minth precinct, who were in the vicinity and heard the shots, hastened to the store. They found Mr. Wilson to be badly wounded, and his wife In a semi-hysterical condition from fright.

The ninth precinct station house was notified of the shooting. A half dozen policemen, under command of Lieut. Faivey, went out immediately to assist in the careful of the semilar to assist in the careful of the care To provde a tactical organization of the search for the assist. According to Wilson's description he is between Representative Knowland of California light complexion and was rather shabbily

New Twenty-six Footer, It Is Claimed, Attains 42.1 Miles An Hour.

The world's record for racing twentysix-foot racing boats, it is claimed, was broken on the Potomac yesterday after- the room. noon by the Furlong, which made 42.1 tory of twenty-six-foot racing boats, the builders claim, has such a speed been made. A few people who were aware that the trial of the boat was to be made were on the wharves and witnessed the speedy performance.

The little craft flew along like a streak of lightning, leaving behind a heavy spray, which dashed many feet above it. The boat is equipped with two 150-horsepower engines, making 1,200 turns minute, 240 explosions a second. The American record for boats of any ength, it is claimed, was 36.7 miles, and was made by the famous Dixie II. The world's record for boats of the size of told the police before he was removed the Furlong, it is asserted, was 29.8 miles per hour. Will Be Cup Defender.

This boat was built and equipped by an engine company of Alexandria for W. T. cup against French, English and Italian in the company which controls the pat- adoption of our Constitution. challenges. This record beats by more ent rights to the cotton gin invented by tional events by the Maple Leaf, owned to W. C. Fordyce of St. Louis, Mo., reby the Duke of Westminster, which is to represent England in the races at New This was the second trial trip made by the Furlong, and the owners are greatly pleased with the results. It is expected

PACA MONUMENT UNVEILED.

Large Crowd Attends Exercises

CENTERVILLE, Md., May 18 .- In the Wilson, who ran from her home close ernor of Maryland and one of the four by to the store. As she entered the door the negro leveled his revolver at her and snapped the trigger. He then dashed past her into the street and made his escape.

ernor of Maryland and one of the four Maryland signers of the Declaration of Independence, was unveiled and dedicated today at Wye Hall, in Wye Neck, this county, Police Act Quickly.

The unveiling was by Dr. George W. Dame of Philadelphia and Dr. Henry Morris of that city, both descendants of men of revolutionary fame.

WANT TRIAL DELAYED.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 18 .- Prosecutor would be impossible to try these cases sarcastic query: "We are as anxious for a speedy trial as any one concerned in this matter."

WILL DEFY SERVICE RECALL IS

John Hays Hammond Leaves President Taft Makes His Pofor Canada Today.

TO SAIL LAST OF MONTH UPHOLDS JUDICIAL POWER

Appear Wednesday, However,

LIE IS PASSED AT HEARING ADDRESSES LEGAL CONFERENCE

Attorney John C. Gittings Resents

Query and Uses Ugly Word. Letters Introduced. Although served with a subpoena yes erday to appear again next Wedensday afternoon before Examiner Harper for further cross-examination by Attorney John C. Gittings, counsel for Daniel J. Sully, former "cotton king," in Sully's sult against him and against several codefendants for $1,500,000 damages for alleged breach of contract and for alleged conspiracy to ruin Sully's business reputation, John Hays Hammond will leave today for Canada.

He is due to sail from this country for England not later than May 27 to be present as the special representative of the United States at the ceronation of Judge. King George, and the service of the subpoena was caused by Attorney Gittings as a form of reply to Mr. Hammond's formal notice at Friday's session of the hearing that it would be necessary for him to leave the city immediately after the completion of the hearing yesterday.

And yesterday's hearing broke up in one of the liveliest rows that has yet punctuated the proceedings before the examiner in the Hammond-Sully case. The "short and ugly" word was bandled bench during the term for which he about, and despite Mr. Hammond's in- was elected to an election for recall. sistence upon the importance of the mis- in which the reason for his recall is to try, Mr. Gittings declared he "didn't give fense thereto to be equally brief. -" whether Mr. Hammond ever got away from Washington.

Hearing Grows Warm.

by unceasing repetitions of the same already was tense, and Mr. Gittings ment that he was "making a speech" instant. "You are not treating me fairly, Mr. Gittings," he said. "It is The colloquy promised to more heated when Attorney Philipker, counsel for Mr. Hammond, and to make his voice heard, and with up-raised finger he instructed the stenographer to make it a matter of record that he directed his client to make no further replies to questions propounded by At-That brought the hearing to an abrupt ermination, and with emphatic declarations that they were prepared to produce more unwelcome facts than either Mr.

Mr. Hammond and Attorney Walker left

Question of Contempt. Attorney Walker would not say last night that Mr. Hammond would directly disregard the subpoena, though he did discuss the point of law whether the disregard of the subpoena issued by an examining notary public could be construed as contempt of court.

not prevent Mr. Walker from appearing ing the consideration of the verdict. before one of the justices of the District Supreme Court next Wednesday morning in the case by counsel for the plaintiff questions covering ground that already has been canvassed four or five times." The testimony adduced at yesterday's in the western states, an entirely difexamination Mr. Gittings called for a garding the securing by Mr. Fordyce and his associates of an interest in the gin.

A messenger was sent to Mr. Hamnond's home to secure the letter, and its introduction proved somewhat of a boom erang, since Mr. Doremus is a co-plain iff with Mr. Sully in his suit against Mr Hammond and his associates, and the letter apparently indicated a complete hange of sentiment on the part of Mr. Doremus regarding the honesty of Mr. Hammond's action in severing relations with Mr. Sully. Denies Sully's Claims.

The letter opens with this statement: "As I told you, when Mr. Doremus neard my version of the Sully controversy he changed his mind as to any intention on my part of defrauding him, and he now realizes that for all interests concerned the partners in the ownership dry today, is expected to accompany him. of the gin must get together."

It closes with this assertion: "I may tell you that Mr. Sully has no claims and cannot interfere with the carrying out of any arrangement we make with you." And the letter was marked at the bottom: "Approved, W. D. Doremus."

After this letter there came still another, and by its presentation Attorney Gittings brought into the examination the question which Mr. Hammond and his attorney, Philip Walker, declared had been answered "time and time again," in Wilton place today. Witnesses renamely, the sale of stock, which belonged ported to the police that servants apported to the police that servants approach to the police that the po to Mr. Doremus and Mr. DuBois—the sales, it was alleged, having been made without the knowledge of Doremus or the woman from the window before they

Mrs. Burnaby married Lieut. Algernon E. Burnaby of the Royal Horse Guards in 1896 and divorced him in 1901, following in answer this query of Mr. Gittings. again answer this query of Mr. Gittings', man. Turner today received a call from At- but he would do it in his own way. His torneys C. E. Beicher and John A. Con- explanation of the stock transactions ran nor, representing men indicted in the into considerable detail, and this prolegislative bribery cases, who declared it voked the plaintiff's counsel to make the Special Dispatch to The Star.

"Are you going to make a speech?"
"I will make a speech if I want to,"
Mr. Hammond replied. "And you expect to make speeches, and then have this examination concluded to-day, so that you can get away? Mr.

Gittings inquired.

The final verbal explosion followed, in which the witness declared the examining attorney was trying to lay a trap, which brought forth the "lie" direct from Mr. Gittings, and the session ended.

sition Plain.

FIVE CENTS.

Defendant in Sully's Suit Cited to Laments Tendency in This Country to Curtail Court Authority.

Considers System in Great Britain Has Advantages Over That of United States.

NEW YORK, May 18 .- President Taft tonight came out publicly and emphatically against the recall of the judiciary. In his speech at the Hotel Astor, before the conference on reform of the criminal law and procedure, the President made his attitude plain. Most of his speech had been devoted to a comparison, highly unfavorable to this country, of the judicial systems of Great Britain and the United States. He lamented the tendency manifested even in England, but more particularly in this country.

to put limitations on the power of the

"And, now," he said, "not content with reducing the position of the judge to one something like that of the moderator in a religious assembly or the presiding officer of a political convenimportant and to be put still more on trial and to assume still more the character of a defendant by a provision of law, under which, if his rulings and conduct in court do not suit a small percentage of the electors of his dis trict, he may be compelled to submit the question of his continuance on the

Called a Nostrum

"It can hardly be said, my friends, that this proposed change, if adopted, will give him greater authority or power for usefulness or constitute a reform in the Attorney Gittings, after an hour of country. It will certainly not diminis questioning yesterday. The situation the power or irresponsibility of counse strong sense of humor of the American people, which has so often saved them from the dangers of demagoguery, wil not be lacking in respect of this

The President reached the Astor at late hour and started speaking al immediately judges, in the power which they maintain and exercise in the course of the trial for Sully or his counsel would wish to hear, the saving of time and the simplification the bench as to the proper behavior of counsel in the conduct of the case. If there is any other reason for the difference it cannot be found in procedure.

the issues, and in the respect and dience given to their intimations from Lighter Regard for Law. Mr. Walker said Mr. Hammond would quent less rigorous public opinion in be back in the United States some time favor of the punishment of crime, which next week, and he "might come to relieves prosecuting officers and grand Washington to meet the members of his juries from the highest standard in this family before starting with them for regard, and which finds its way into and return of his client, it was stated, would ing the trial and in the jury room dur-

> "What I believe to be an unfounded "In many states, judges are not peri jury after the arguments of counsel, bu they are required to submit written charges to the jury upon abstruse ques tions of law, with no opportunity to apply the principles concretely to the facts

Burns and Gompers Present. Attorney General Wickersham was to have made an address, but was unable to attend. Francis J. Heney of San Francisco was one of the speakers. Among the 400 guests were Detective William J. Burns, who arrested the Mc Namara brothers and McManigal for alleged dynamiting, and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who has denounced Burns as having trumped up a case against labor. home of his brother, Henry W. Taft. Tomorrow he goes to Harrisburg, Pa., address the tenth biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

DROPS TO HER DEATH

Sister of English Baron Falls From Third-Story Window.

LONDON, May 13 .- Mrs. Sybil Burnaby, a sister of Baron Delamere, was injured probably fatally in a fall from saw her drop to the ground.

Isn't Afraid of Snakes.

OAKLAND, Md., May 13 .- Albert Emouse, a farmer near Oakland, Md. in March last lost his pocketbook on his farm. It contained $15 and valuable papers and he was never able to locate it. Yesterday his little boy was out in the field and found the wallet. He went home with the pocketbook, which had contained three young snakes of the garter variety. He was carrying the ocketbook in one hand and the snakes